On Sonday night last the crawds in the rarrous barracks' throughout the Dominson amounted to 74,943 persons.

The influence of open air receitings and street parades for the week was 1,384 and longest number of soldiers on parade on a orgest number of some week night was 4,866.

The greatest numbers in the marches of the week were at Tilsonburg, 100; Chutham, N.B., 80; Bloomfield, 46; and Owen Sound, Petralia, Montreal I, Ottawo, Winnipeg and Hamilton were all well to

The number at knee drill on Sunday morning was 2,090, and the largest uns-ters were of Westport London, Peterbore, Brandon, Quebec II, Montreal I, Hamil-ton, The Temple, and Winniegs.

The total number of professed conver-nions was 280, of which the largest num-bers were at Hillsdale, Paris. Cobourg, Halifax, London, Uzbridge and Yorkvilte.

The number of hours occupied to visite egring may herald a decided ntack on the half-breeds and Prairie tribes.

Major and Mrs. Glover have at last taken up their quarters in the new Resout Blone, and the specific program of the horse tribes and the specific program of the control of the halfing may be tooked for.

Jesus for your choics doth wait.
Another day may be too late,
And death eternal then may be your doom.

Are you weary of your load? 'Twas for you He shed His blood, And He from you heart the burden remove,

He will pardon all your sin,
le will make you pure within.
Come and all His tender loving mercy

Sinner, come to Jesus now, M His Cross in mercy bow, For you cannot do without Him wheo you die: Ha His lifa a ransom gave, Your poor guilty soul to save.

That you might live with Him is Heavan by and bys.

Where the struggles cease within,
And the light is bright and living,
In the heart start's free from sin. CHOOUS.

Can we get, can we get, can we get Bayoud this simileg. Can we gat beyond this simileg. Where the struggles cease wilkin.

Can we get beyond this sinning. Where our fife is bright and fair And the devil comes not bringing, Sorrow, doubting and despair.

Can we get beyond this sinuing, And have peace and joy to day, With the soul like a rock unriven, Standing firm in every fray.

We can get beyond this sinning.
If our soul we trust to God,
And our bodies while their living,
We will give coto the Lord.

Come and get beyond this sinning By repentance for your soul, And begin the work of bringing All you can within the fold.

It is wonderfol the difference there is between ministers now-adays. At a place recently visited by the Commissioner in our division, a couple of them have rentured our division, a couple of them have rentured to give their opinion on the Army and its methods. One says: (and the one that you would least expect it from)—that what the Commissioner said in this address was just so; and the Army was right, and he wished his people would attend the Army unrel hand they did! "the other who a hundli more than they did "theother who abundle (according to the seek beloing) have blown as nearly to the skie with praiso, as just the opposite and kold his people to keep away from no."
